

Headlines

DCSF IAG strategy

The DCSF IAG Strategy is now expected to be launched in the autumn term.

Impartial careers education – supplementary statutory guidance

DCSF is publishing statutory guidance to assist schools to fulfil their duties in relation to the careers education requirements of the Education and Skills Act 2008 and to provide practical help on implementation. This will include principles of impartial careers education, details of the Key Information that careers education programmes in schools will be expected to provide on post 16 learning pathways and materials that will help schools to deliver the Principles/Key Information.

Find out more

Launch of IEBE

The Institute for Business Excellence has been launched to help set professional standards for Employer Business Partnerships in schools. Visit <http://www.iebe.org.uk/>

Information Advice and Guidance - Audit against the Quality Standards

To ensure the improvement of IAG, the DCSF, through a contract with igen, is providing a free audit service against the Quality Standards. Find out more

Round-up

New job profiles available at ImproveSkills

A range of new job profiles have now been added to the ImproveSkills website, so that you can learn more about specific job roles and the qualifications required for certain careers.

Find out more

IAG training for people who are unemployed or facing redundancy

next step West Midlands is offering free training to people in the region who are unemployed or facing redundancy and are interested in working in the information, advice and guidance (IAG) sector.

Find out more

Delivering the 2013 Diploma Entitlement: guidance to local authorities and providers

This guidance focuses specifically on the Diploma Entitlement strand of the broader 14-19 learning and support Entitlement.

Find out more

Work-related learning - new research on what young people think

Learning how to look for a job and being taught interview techniques are highly valued by young people according to new research carried out for the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority.

Find out more

Publications

Teachers TV – STEM subject choice and careers programmes

The next four Teachers TV programmes will go onto the Teachers TV website in September with supporting resources.

Find out more

Providing Career s and Guidance within an Integrated Youth Support

Service context

The aim of this research project was to inform the evidence base for careers and guidance - related interventions within an Integrated Youth Support Service (IYSS) context in England .

Find out more

Black role models: which messages work?
Testing the impact of role model messages for Black boys and Black young men: research to inform the Black role model programme

Black role models – Which messages work?

This report summarises findings from an experimental research study that explored the effect of different types of role model messages in order to identify those with the most positive potential impact on Black boys and Black young men, and to identify any potentially negative effects.

Find out more

Girls and careers

The More Maths Grads project has produced a short film on You Tube.

Find out more

Give a child a soft toy and they will talk to it, give a child a puppet and they will talk it through

Stereotyping by peers, parents, professionals and the media continue to reinforce the notion that boys do one thing and girls another. Connexions Nottinghamshire and the Sector Partnership for the Diploma in Society, Health and Development are using puppets to break down stereotyping.

Find out more

Apprenticeships explained

A new guide for learners has just been published and can be downloaded from the Apprenticeships website.

Find out more

Ways & Choices

Ten careers lessons that support the implementation of the 14-19 reforms are now available on cegnet.

Find out more

Events

Fourth national Delivering Diplomas Conference

Diploma in Manufacturing and Product Design (MPD) experts will provide advice at the fourth Delivering Diplomas Conference on 1st October in Birmingham .

Find out more

Contact Us

CEIAG News is published ten times a year. The next newsletter will appear in September. The CEIAG support programme welcomes suggestions, feedback and contributions. Please submit contributions for the next issue to Anthony Barnes by Friday 11th September 2009.

Contacts within the CEIAG Support Programme are:

David Broadhead, david.broadhead@dcsg.gov.uk

Sue Barr, ACEG sue@suebarr.co.uk

June Jensen, ACEG june@jjensen.plus.com

Claire Nix, Support Programme Project Manager, VT Group
claire.nix@vtplc.com

Anthony Barnes, VT Group anthony.barnes@vtplc.com

Barbara Rayment, Youth Access barbara@youthaccess.org.uk

Mailing List

To subscribe please click here or to unsubscribe click here

To set up a group email for your 14-19 partnership or schools and colleges in your area, please contact Karen Collins at karen.collins@vtplc.com